The Admirable Towser.
"I've got the most wonderful dog in the world—the smartest I mean," said one of a party camping in Canada last fall. "When I bring out my rifle he knows I am going after deer and he never offers to follow me, but if he sees me reach for my shotgun, he knows that means partridges, and when I get to the woods I find him there waiting for me. Actually that dog knows the difference between a rifle and a shot gun."
"That's nothing," said Frank Packard, at the other side of the table. "You fellows have seen my little Towser, haven't you? Well, when I begin to get out my fishing kit, Towser runs up behind the barn, and begins digging for worms."

Palestine Jews Upon Charity.
Jerusalem, Dec. 30.—The number of Palestine Jews thrown upon charity because of the war is fast approaching 50,000. Bread and soup is served to them once a day in Jerusalem, Jaffa and the larger centers, but the funds are growing short. Unless food is brought in, famine will result. The situation has been made more serious by the stoppage of the Jerusalem-Jaffa railway, a French concern. It is estimated that the feeding of the Jews, who are not regarded by the Turks as alien enemies, will cost $3,000 daily until the crisis is past.

Negro Miner Killed.

Pochohantas, Va., Jan. -9.—Clifton Bradley, a colored miner, was shot to death between Big Vein Coal operation and Boissevane Colliery this evening about six-forty and placed on the track just ahead of passenger train No. 37, which runs from Pochohantas to Boissevane, and us at Boissevane at 7 o'clock.

Thomas J. Cordell and Cleveland Tabor, two pedestrians, who were walking from Pochohantas to Boissevane, discovered the body just in time to get it out of the way of ahead of the train and found Bradley to have been shot through the heart, the bullet having passed entirely through his body.

It is rumored locally that Bradley may have been in the act of holding up someone, but his subject worked faster. When last seen alive Bradley was in Pochohantas accompanied by three other negroes, and a broiling row when near his home may have been his undoing.

Bradley held miner's check No. 1 at the Boissevane mines of the Pochohantas consolidated collieries company and when work was not good it is said he gambled for a living.

Saves Boy Friend's Life.

Randolph Hughes, age 15, son of Jesse M. Hughes, of North Holston, deserves a hero medal for his presence of mind and bravery in plunging into the swollen waters of the North Fork at that point December 31, and saving the life of Robert Rogers, age 12.

Darr Hughes, age 10, Earnest Hill, age 12 and Gus Williams, age 12, were playing in a boat which was fastened to the bank of the stream opposite to the residence of Dr. Wilder, when young Rogers, who was standing on the bank with Randolph Hughes, yielded to a sudden impulse and unfastened the boat, gave it a shove and jumped in with his friends. Becoming frightened when he saw the boat quickly drawn out into the swift current, although he could not swim, he (Rogers), jumped out of the boat and was quickly drawn under the water. Shouting to this brother to sit down in the boat and keep still, Randolph Hughes plunged into the stream and swam to his companion. Unable to keep both heads above the water, Randolph sank to the bottom. Discovering that the water was barely over his head, he held his companion up so that the latter's head would be above the surface and kicking himself above the water from time to time to catch his breath, he made for an island a short distance down the stream. Almost overcome with his exertions and the chill of the water, he finally reached the island with his friend and they were soon rescued.

The boat containing the other boys drifted close to the bank a quarter of a mile down the stream and the boys were able to grasp some overhanging bushes and draw themselves to a place of safety.—Glade Spring Vi-dette.

The Secret of Health is Elimination of Waste

Every business man knows how difficult it is to keep the pigeon holes and drawers of his desk free from the accumulation of useless papers. Every housewife knows how difficult it is to keep her home free from the accumulation of all manner of useless things. So it is with the body. It is difficult to keep it free from the accumulation of waste matter. Unless the waste is promptly eliminated the machinery of the body soon becomes clogged. This is the beginning of most human ills.
